These moments often act as emotional turning points, providing clarity or complicating the narrative.

Structural Functionality

The play’s architecture is composed of a series of interconnected scenes punctuated by monologues that: - Offer character backstory and context - Reveal internal conflicts that are too personal for dialogue - Foreshadow future actions or decisions - Serve as cathartic outlets for characters For instance, Meg’s monologues about her struggles with depression and her feelings of inadequacy serve to deepen audience understanding of her internal landscape, which contrasts sharply with her outward persona of resilience.
