Among the most iconic symbols of this holiday is La Catrina, a skeletal figure that has come to represent the Mexican view of death—celebratory, respectful, and deeply rooted in history. One notable contemporary artist who has contributed to this cultural iconography is David Curland, whose interpretation of La Catrina has resonated with audiences worldwide. In 1910, Mexican artist Diego Rivera popularized La Catrina further through a painting that portrayed her as a symbol of death's equality—reminding viewers that death spares no one, regardless of social status.
