Created to Be His Help Meet: An In-Depth Exploration of Biblical Womanhood and Complementarian Perspectives

Introduction: Understanding the Context and Origin of "Created to Be His Help Meet"

The phrase "Created to Be His Help Meet" originates from a well-known biblical passage found in Genesis 2:18, which states, "And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him." This phrase has been popularized and elaborated upon through the book titled Created to Be His Help Meet by Debi Pearl, which has become a cornerstone resource within certain conservative and Christian circles that emphasize traditional gender roles. This book, and the phrase it borrows from Scripture, aims to define and advocate for a specific view of womanhood—one rooted in biblical principles, emphasizing complementarity, submission, and a supportive role within marriage. To fully understand the message behind this phrase, it is essential to explore its biblical foundation, historical interpretations, and modern applications.

The Biblical Foundation of "Created to Be His Help Meet"

Genesis 2:18 and the Concept of Help Meet

The phrase "help meet" (or "help suitable" in some translations) appears in the context of God's creation of woman. The Hebrew term used here is ezer kenegdo, which can be translated as "help" or "helper" suitable or comparable to the man. This term is significant because: - Ezer (helper): It is used throughout Scripture to describe both human and divine assistance, often highlighting strength and support. For example, God is described as an "ezer" for Israel (Deuteronomy 33:29). - Kenegdo (corresponding to): Signifies a matching or suitable counterpart, emphasizing compatibility and complementarity rather than hierarchy alone. The biblical emphasis is on mutual support and complementarity, with the woman created as a help suitable for the man. This foundational idea has led many to view the woman’s role as one of supportive partnership, rather than dominance or subservience.

Interpretations and Translations: Help Meet or Help Suitable?

Different Bible translations render the phrase differently: - KJV: "Help meet for him" - NKJV: "Helper comparable to him" - NIV: "Suitable helper" - ESV: "Helper fit for him" The nuances between "meet" and "suitable" highlight the importance of understanding the biblical context. Critics argue that "help meet" may imply a secondary or subordinate role, while supporters see it as emphasizing a complementary partnership designed by God.

Modern Application: The Core Principles of "Created to Be His Help Meet"

The phrase has been adapted into a broader philosophy of womanhood within certain Christian communities, often emphasizing: - Biblical submission: Women are encouraged to submit to their husbands as outlined in Ephesians 5:22-24. -

Complementarity: Men and women are viewed as equal in value but different in roles, with women designed to support and assist. - Traditional gender roles: Emphasis on homemaking, nurturing, and supporting the husband's leadership. Debi Pearl’s book expands on these principles, advocating for women to embrace their roles wholeheartedly, including: - Prioritizing homemaking and child-rearing - Supporting their husband's spiritual and practical leadership - Cultivating virtues like patience, humility, and obedience unequal treatment. - The biblical model may be misapplied to reinforce patriarchal structures that suppress women’s voices.

Critiques and Controversies Surrounding "Created to Be His Help Meet"

Misinterpretations and Misapplications
