Types of Circles - Community Building Circles: Used to establish trust and rapport among students and staff. - Conflict Resolution Circles: Facilitated when conflicts arise, encouraging parties to share perspectives. - Re-entry Circles: Held after an incident to reintegrate students who have been involved in disciplinary actions. How to Conduct a Restorative Circle - Set clear ground rules emphasizing respect and confidentiality. - Use a talking piece to ensure everyone has a chance to speak. - Guide the conversation with open-ended questions. - Focus on listening and understanding, not blaming. 2. Restorative Language and Framing Using language that promotes understanding and accountability is vital. Effective Phrases - “Tell me what happened from your perspective.” - “How do you think the other person felt?” - “What do you need to feel better about this?” - “What can you do to repair the harm?” 5. Community Agreements Establishing shared norms helps create a respectful environment.
